A few more verses (3 & 4 based on Grandpa Jones's singing; 5 & 6 from traditionalmusic.co.uk):

3. My Aunty June bought some brand new perfume;
it had such a sweet smelling pu_.
To her surprise, when she had it analysed,
it was nothin' but that good old mountain dew.

4. My Uncle Bill's got a still on the hill
where he'll run off a gallon or two.
The birds in the sky get so drunk they can't fly
from smelling that good old mountain dew.

5. The preacher came by with a tear in his eye
he said that his wife had the flu.
We said that he ought to give her a snort
of that good old mountain dew.

6. Mr Roosevelt told me just how he felt the day that the whiskey law ran through. He said
if your liquor's red it will swell up your head;
better stick to that good old mountain dew.
